Let's Begin!

Another word for begin is start. The words start and begin are synonyms. That means that these two words mean the same thing. Often, if we see the word begin in a sentence, we can erase that word and write the word start in its place and the sentence will still have the same meaning. Let's try!

We seek refuge with Allaah from the shaytaan before we begin reciting the Qur'aan.

We seek refuge with Allaah from the shaytaan before we start reciting the Qur'aan.

Before we begin reading the Qur'aan, we have to make our intention. We make our intention in our heart – never out loud.

We can say that sentence the same way but use the word start instead of the word begin. Try it!

Before we _____ reading the Qur'aan, we have to make our intention. We make our intention in our heart – never out loud.

Every surah in the Qur'aan begins with Bismillaah ar-rahman ar-Raheem except surah at-Taubah.

Every surah in the Qur'aan starts with Bismillaah ar-rahman ar-Raheem except surah at-Taubah.

Directions: Use the word start or the word begin to complete each sentence.

What is The Qur'aan?

The Qur'aan is the Word of Allaah, both the words and the meaning.

Allaah spoke it in a real sense and gave it to Jibreel عليه السلام the trustworthy, and then Jibreel brought it down to the heart of the Prophet ﷺ so that he might be one of the warners, in a plain Arabic tongue. We know this because Allaah says in the Qur'aan:

And truly, this (the Qur'aan) is a revelation from the Lord of the 'Aalameen (mankind, jinn and all that exists), Which the trustworthy Rooh [Jibreel (Gabriel)] has brought down Upon your heart (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) that you may be (one) of the warners {26: 192-94}

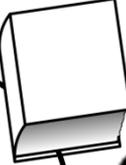

Allaah, may He be glorified and exalted, revealed it to Muhammad ﷺ piecemeal, i.e., bit by bit, over twenty-three years, in accordance with the wisdom of Allaah, may He be glorified and exalted. Some of the revelation was revealed for a specific reason for which it was sent down, and some of it was revealed without a specific reason. And some of it was revealed to tell of something that happened to the Prophet ﷺ and his companions. Some of it was revealed concerning shar'i (legal) rulings, according to what the scholars have said concerning this matter.

Read the story. Some sentences do not end with a punctuation mark. Can you find and fix these sentences?

Today in Islamic Studies we learned about the Qur'aan. We learned that Allaah revealed the Qur'aan to the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. We also learned that the Qur'aan was not revealed all at once; it was revealed over 23 years. We learned that the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was the last messenger that Allaah sent to mankind. After the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, Allaah will not send any more messengers or prophets. Finally, we learned that Allaah will protect the Qur'aan from being changed in any way. I hope we learn more about the Qur'aan tomorrow insha'Allaah.

The Revelation of the Quran

Our Prophet, Muhammad ibn Abdillaah ﷺ, used to love going to spend time alone in the cave of Hiraah. He ﷺ liked to do this even before he knew that Allaah had chosen him to be His Last Messenger to mankind.

Once, when the Prophet ﷺ was in the cave, the angel Jibreel عليه السلام came to Muhammad and asked him ﷺ to read. Muhammad, like most of the Arabs at that time, did not know how to read nor did he know how to write, and he told Jibreel "I do not know how to read."

The angel Jibreel عليه السلام grabbed Muhammad ﷺ forcefully and pressed him ﷺ. Jibreel عليه السلام pressed the Prophet ﷺ so hard that he ﷺ could not bear it. Then Jibreel عليه السلام let go of the Prophet ﷺ and once again he asked him ﷺ to read. Again, the Prophet ﷺ told Jibreel عليه السلام that he could not read. The angel Jibreel grabbed the Prophet ﷺ a second time and again Jibreel عليه السلام pressed Muhammad ﷺ forcefully until he could not bear it anymore. Then Jibreel let him go. Like before, the angel asked the Prophet ﷺ to read, and again the Prophet ﷺ told Jibreel عليه السلام that he did not know how to read. The angel Jibreel عليه السلام grabbed the Prophet ﷺ a third time and again Jibreel عليه السلام pressed him ﷺ . This time, when the angel Jibreel عليه السلام let the Prophet ﷺ go, he did not asked the Prophet ﷺ to read. This time,

Jibreel عليه السلام let the Prophet ﷺ go and he عليه السلام said,

أَقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ ١ خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ ٢

أَقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ ٣ الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ ٤

عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ ٥

These were the first verses of the Qur'aan that Allaah revealed to the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ through the angel Jibreel عليه السلام.

My Special Notes:

Makkee and Madanee Suwar

As you know dear student, there are 114 suwar in the Qur'aan. Our beloved scholars sort the suwar into two categories: Makkee and Madanee. How do the scholars know which suwar are Makkee and which are Madanee?

If the surah (or most of its verses) was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ before his hijrah to al-Madeenah, the surah is considered a Makkee surah. If the surah (or most of its verses) was revealed after the Prophet's ﷺ hijrah to al-Madeenah, the surah is considered to be a Madanee surah.

Some suwar that are Makkee are: Surah Al-Alaq, Surah Al-Fajr, Surah At-Takathur, and surah Al-Humaza. Some suwar that are Madanees are: surah Al-Baqarah, surah Aal-'Imraan, surah An-Nisaa, surah Al-Maa'idah, and surah Al-Anfaal. Knowing if a surah is Makkee or Madanee helps us understand the Qur'aan better. We ask Allaah to reward our noble scholars for sorting the suwar in this way...ameen!

Write a letter telling a friend about a surah you read.

The writing area is enclosed in a decorative border with a scalloped, wavy pattern. It contains seven sets of horizontal lines for writing. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first two sets are positioned at the top, and the remaining five sets are spaced evenly down the page. The last set of lines is positioned lower than the others, leaving more space below it.
